The Master Angel Attunement System

There are three attunements in this system but they work as one. The first is for full conscious contact with angels. It is called "Higher Angel Contact". This attunement is designed to bring the energies and qualities of angels into your life/being. The angels will accelerate and oversee your spiritual development and be able to effect real change in all areas and on all levels of your life and your being. The angels may appear "in person" to help you or may send their energies to you. Over time, in what seems like a very natural way, you will grow in forgiveness, love, compassion, strength, awareness, ego transparency/transcendence, wisdom, insight, being in the moment, healing ability and other angelic qualities. It also leads to full conscious communication with angels.

The second attunement is for working with a group of angels that specialize in physical healing. The third is for working with a group of angels that specialize in emotional and mental healing. The second and third attunements work together as one and are called "Healing Angels". Together all three attunements are called Angelcontact. These attunements will last for all of your future incarnations on this earth. However you can undo the attunement any time you want simply by intending to undo it.

Angelcontact clears the way for you to connect with the angelic realm and for angels to connect with you. Once the way is cleared you will connect with those angels/angel energies that are most suited to your needs.

They are happy to help and will usually do all they can for you but they will always use their own judgment first. They will do what they think is best and that may or may not always be what you think is best. The angels are here to serve but are not your servants. Angels like to help those who help themselves.

This system works in the following way.

In preparation for full conscious angelic contact all energy systems, channels, centers, fields, and flows involved in the process will be unblocked, fixed, cleared, balanced and made ready in every way. Any mental and emotional adjustments, healings, balancings and preparations will be made. All physical adjustments, healings, balancings and preparations will be made. Once all preparation for full conscious angelic contact is made the process of full conscious angelic contact will begin.

Conscious angelic contact will only be given to the degree that the person can handle it with comfort. However unconscious contact will be initiated immediately. The angels will then work on building stronger, deeper and more conscious contact until one is ready for full conscious contact.

Healing Angels,- These angels will work on healing any physical, emotional, mental, energetic or karmic issue. All you have to do is ask them. The angels may appear “in person”, send projections of themselves or send their energy. They will work on you for about one hour at a time. After one hour you may ask again. Since one can only handle so much energy work in one day. Once you reach your limit they will not do anything more. When asked, the angels will work on other people as well. For working on others they work best when they can send energy through your hands or your heart chakra when you are touching the person you are working on. The angels may appear “in person”, send projections of themselves or send their healing energies through you to the other person. For long distance work you should have them come through your body for a few seconds to start the process. Then inform the angels of the situation and ask them for help.

You can ask the angels to help you in any specific way you want or you can also ask them to do what ever they know to be for your highest good. You may ask the “healing” angels to have their energies come through objects, water, food or even specified areas of space (for example you can create an area, like a bubble, of almost any size you want in the air in a room). The healing angels will only work through objects or a space temporarily. Typically they will work through an object or a space for about one hour. To have the angels bless water, work through an object, work in a space, just ask them to and they will.

Higher Angels- The “higher” angels work in less physical ways than the healing angels. They work more on the higher planes of your life. Their effect is more emotional, mental, energetic and spiritual. They will work on healing in coordination with the healing angels. You can ask them to do what they know to be best for you or ask them for something specific. They will work with you or on others. You can ask the “higher” angels to permanently have their energies come through objects and bless water.

After the initial attunement the system is set into motion and preparation for full conscious angel contact begins and will continue until it is achieved. The angels will be working with you all the time from then on. The more you work with the system the better it will work. If the angels are ignored for a number of years their work with you will diminish greatly but it will not stop altogether. If you want to start working with the angels after a long time of not working with them it is easy. Just do it. Just tell them that you want to start working with them again. They will hear you.

It is a good idea to work with them on a regular basis. Daily, weekly or whenever you want you can ask for any kind of healing you feel you need. You can also ask for any kind of psychological/spiritual development or guidance you need. Once you have a connection to one or more angel you can talk to them, ask for advice or anything else. You can also ask them to appear and help you in your dreams. There are really very few limits for working with the angels.

Activate Angelcontact simply by intention. Thinking, "angelcontact" or "angels" or "angelcontact healing" or any other such words will activate the system. You can also just ask the angels for anything you want without saying any special words to activate the system. Your intension is more important than the words you use. Activating the system will activate all three attunements unless you specify otherwise. This attunement is a profound step in your healing and spiritual development. The angels are smiling on you right now and are eager to work/play with you.

This system has been empowered so that reading the following paragraph with the intension of self attuning into this system will in fact attune you to the system. You may read through it without the intension of attuning to the system first to make sure you really want to do it.

"God, higher self, and all beings that have my highest good in mind and heart and that work with human angel interactions and attunements please activate and attune me to this Angelcontact system. Please see that it is the highest and purest quality. Please send any angels, gods, masters, energies or beings needed to activate and maintain this system. Please have all other human angel interaction systems, attunements join this system to form one more effective, dynamic, loving, healing and enlightening system. Please allow in only those systems and attunements and aspects of those systems/attunements that are in keeping with the goals of this system and that are of a very high, pure, effective and balanced nature. Attune me to these systems and send me the attunements as I am ready and help prepare me for more attunements and for deeper and fuller conscious contact with the angelic realm and angels that are willing to work with me. This can range from attunement to every system all at once to one fraction of one attunement every month. See to it that the attunements and the merging of systems are balanced, safe and for my highest good. Please make sure that all beings, energies and thought and emotional forms of a lower nature that might cause any harm are kept out of this system. Thank You"

The best way to pass this attunement on to other is by having the person read this script. However anyone who is attuned to it can pass it on to others by simply by sincere intention.

Passing it on by intension is equal in every way except for the information one gets from reading the script.

You may want to do this attunement several times a year to update it and re-empower it. You do not need to do this. One attunement is all you really need. But sometimes re-attuning can be powerful
